Fine Arts Instructional Center

The beautiful, modern Fine Arts Instructional Center is the new home of Eastern's Art and Art History, Theatre and Music programs, as well as the University's art gallery. The new center provides lecture, rehearsal, studio and performance spaces that will allow faculty and students to fully explore their creativity and share it with campus audiences as well as local and regional patrons.

Facilities

Our classrooms and studios in the new Fine Arts Instructional Center are state-of-the-art. They include equipment for welding, casting, silk-screening, papermaking, encaustics, and a variety of relief and intaglio printing. Our digital classrooms are furnished with large screen iMacs, scanners, Wacom tablets, the latest design and imaging software, and regular and large format printers.

Real-World Success

Recent graduates of Eastern's Art and Art History Department work in Connecticut for ArtEffects, Artfx Signs, Essex Art Center, ESPN, Greenwich Webworks, the Wadsworth Atheneum, Miranda Creative, Red Rock Branding, Mission Control, Mystic Arts Center, Yale University, Timex Inc. and the University of Hartford. Outside of Connecticut, Eastern graduates are employed by Boston Celtics (Boston), iRobot (Boston), American Apparel (NYC), the Associated Press, Carrot Creative (Brooklyn, NY), Indegene (NJ), HUGE, Inc. (LA), Jack Rabbit Design (Philadelphia) and the Stadium Theater Performing Arts Center (RI).

GIVING LIFE TO WHAT INSPIRES YOU

In the Art and Art History Department you take part in a challenging and stimulating course of study within as well as outside the classroom.

There are opportunities for real-world pre-professional experiences in the business and non-profit sectors. You attend on-campus exhibitions and travel to galleries and museums in Connecticut, Massachusetts, and beyond. You are mentored and encouraged to engage in internships and study abroad opportunities.

Fields of Study

The Department of Art and Art History provides instruction and inspiration to a diverse group of students. Art History, Digital and New Media, and the traditional media studio arts come together in an exceptional facility which provides students with an understanding of technique, visual and written communication, and the role of critical and creative thinking in society.
