HOW TO PAY FINES

Unauthorized display or use is a valid state handicapped permit displayed on a plate or Section 14-253a of the Connecticut General Statutes. Fines may be paid at the Bursar's Office (in the Wood Police Department or on the Public Safety web page at is issued.

Fines must be paid in full within 10 days of the ticket must be appealed, without payment, within 10 calendar days after the violation is issued. Appeal forms are available at the University Police Department or on the Public Safety web page at www.easternct.edu/police. No other form will be accepted.

The University reserves the right to tow vehicles at the owner's expense. Without notice or the owner (to load zones, tow zones, fire lanes or handicapped spaces, or for vehicles that present a hazard or impede normal or emergency operations. Students with five or more violations are subject to having their vehicle'S. höchste Geschwindigkeit ist 15 M.P.H.

The campus speed limit is 15 M.P.H. includes but not limited to):

• Expired meter • Fire zone • Traffic hazard • Handicapped Spaces Connection General Statutes prohibits the use of designated handicapped parking spaces unless the vehicle operator or passenger has a valid state handicapped permit displayed on a plate or placard. Handicapped permits are issued to the individual, not the vehicle. Unauthorized display or use is a violation of section 14-253a which is an infraction and will result in a $150 infraction or a $100 parking ticket.

HOW TO PAY FINES

Fines may be paid at the Bursar's Office (in the Wood Support Services Center) or the University Police Department. Fines must be paid in full within 10 days of the date issued or the total original fine will double. If a receipt is required or payment is being made in cash and address and inserted into the permanently mounted box located in the University Police Department lobby. Please make check payable to "ECSU". Outing tickets will prevent you from registering for classes, obtaining transcripts or renewing your parking permit. All outstanding parking violations are referred to the University Bursar's Office for collection. All billing will be sent to the vehicle owner, who will be notified twice before the unpaid fine is sent to a collection agency.

The Appeal Process

If you believe that you have received a ticket in error, you have the right to appeal. Contact the University Parking Appeals Board. The ticket must be appealed, without payment, within 10 calendar days after the violation is issued. Appeal forms are available at the University Police Department or on the Public Safety web page at www.easternct.edu/police. No other form will be accepted.

The University reserves the right to tow vehicles at the owner's expense. Without notice or the owner (to load zones, tow zones, fire lanes or handicapped spaces, or for vehicles that present a hazard or impede normal or emergency operations. Students with five or more violations are subject to having their vehicle'S. höchste Geschwindigkeit ist 15 M.P.H.

The campus speed limit is 15 M.P.H. includes but not limited to):

• Expired meter • Fire zone • Traffic hazard • Handicapped Spaces Connection General Statutes prohibits the use of designated handicapped parking spaces unless the vehicle operator or passenger has a valid state handicapped permit displayed on a plate or placard. Handicapped permits are issued to the individual, not the vehicle. Unauthorized display or use is a violation of section 14-253a which is an infraction and will result in a $150 infraction or a $100 parking ticket.

HOW TO PAY FINES

Fines may be paid at the Bursar's Office (in the Wood Support Services Center) or the University Police Department. Fines must be paid in full within 10 days of the date issued or the total original fine will double. If a receipt is required or payment is being made in cash and address and inserted into the permanently mounted box located in the University Police Department lobby. Please make check payable to "ECSU". Outing tickets will prevent you from registering for classes, obtaining transcripts or renewing your parking permit. All outstanding parking violations are referred to the University Bursar's Office for collection. All billing will be sent to the vehicle owner, who will be notified twice before the unpaid fine is sent to a collection agency.

The Appeal Process

If you believe that you have received a ticket in error, you have the right to appeal. Contact the University Parking Appeals Board. The ticket must be appealed, without payment, within 10 calendar days after the violation is issued. Appeal forms are available at the University Police Department or on the Public Safety web page at www.easternct.edu/police. No other form will be accepted.

The University reserves the right to tow vehicles at the owner's expense. Without notice or the owner (to load zones, tow zones, fire lanes or handicapped spaces, or for vehicles that present a hazard or impede normal or emergency operations. Students with five or more violations are subject to having their vehicle'S. höchste Geschwindigkeit ist 15 M.P.H.

The campus speed limit is 15 M.P.H. includes but not limited to):

• Expired meter • Fire zone • Traffic hazard • Handicapped Spaces Connection General Statutes prohibits the use of designated handicapped parking spaces unless the vehicle operator or passenger has a valid state handicapped permit displayed on a plate or placard. Handicapped permits are issued to the individual, not the vehicle. Unauthorized display or use is a violation of section 14-253a which is an infraction and will result in a $150 infraction or a $100 parking ticket.

HOW TO PAY FINES

Fines may be paid at the Bursar's Office (in the Wood Support Services Center) or the University Police Department. Fines must be paid in full within 10 days of the date issued or the total original fine will double. If a receipt is required or payment is being made in cash and address and inserted into the permanently mounted box located in the University Police Department lobby. Please make check payable to "ECSU". Outing tickets will prevent you from registering for classes, obtaining transcripts or renewing your parking permit. All outstanding parking violations are referred to the University Bursar's Office for collection. All billing will be sent to the vehicle owner, who will be notified twice before the unpaid fine is sent to a collection agency.

The Appeal Process

If you believe that you have received a ticket in error, you have the right to appeal. Contact the University Parking Appeals Board. The ticket must be appealed, without payment, within 10 calendar days after the violation is issued. Appeal forms are available at the University Police Department or on the Public Safety web page at www.easternct.edu/police. No other form will be accepted.

The University reserves the right to tow vehicles at the owner's expense. Without notice or the owner (to load zones, tow zones, fire lanes or handicapped spaces, or for vehicles that present a hazard or impede normal or emergency operations. Students with five or more violations are subject to having their vehicle'S. höchste Geschwindigkeit ist 15 M.P.H.

The campus speed limit is 15 M.P.H. includes but not limited to):

• Expired meter • Fire zone • Traffic hazard • Handicapped Spaces Connection General Statutes prohibits the use of designated handicapped parking spaces unless the vehicle operator or passenger has a valid state handicapped permit displayed on a plate or placard. Handicapped permits are issued to the individual, not the vehicle. Unauthorized display or use is a violation of section 14-253a which is an infraction and will result in a $150 infraction or a $100 parking ticket.

HOW TO PAY FINES

Fines may be paid at the Bursar's Office (in the Wood Support Services Center) or the University Police Department. Fines must be paid in full within 10 days of the date issued or the total original fine will double. If a receipt is required or payment is being made in cash and address and inserted into the permanently mounted box located in the University Police Department lobby. Please make check payable to "ECSU". Outing tickets will prevent you from registering for classes, obtaining transcripts or renewing your parking permit. All outstanding parking violations are referred to the University Bursar's Office for collection. All billing will be sent to the vehicle owner, who will be notified twice before the unpaid fine is sent to a collection agency.

The Appeal Process

If you believe that you have received a ticket in error, you have the right to appeal. Contact the University Parking Appeals Board. The ticket must be appealed, without payment, within 10 calendar days after the violation is issued. Appeal forms are available at the University Police Department or on the Public Safety web page at www.easternct.edu/police. No other form will be accepted.

The University reserves the right to tow vehicles at the owner's expense. Without notice or the owner (to load zones, tow zones, fire lanes or handicapped spaces, or for vehicles that present a hazard or impede normal or emergency operations. Students with five or more violations are subject to having their ve
Temporary Parking Permit

If driving an alternate vehicle, you are required to obtain a temporary parking permit prior to parking on University property. All temporary parking permits may be obtained 24/7 from the University Police Department. You are required to present your valid vehicle registration and student I.D., if applicable. Temporary parking permits must be completely displayed on the front windshield, hanging from the rearview mirror.

Visitors

- Faculty/staff, commuters and residential students must park in their designated parking areas at all times.
- All designated parking areas have signs.
- There is no overnight parking allowed (2 to 6 a.m.) in commuter and faculty/staff parking lots, or in metered spaces.
- Violators will be ticketed and/or towed.

Where to Park

- Faculty/staff, commuters and residential students must park in their designated parking areas at all times.
- There is no overnight parking allowed (2 to 6 a.m.) in commuter and faculty/staff parking lots, or in metered spaces.
- Violators will be ticketed and/or towed.
- Motorcycle and scooter parking allowed in designated areas.
- Weekend parking begins on Friday at 6:45 p.m. and ends on Monday at 2 a.m. Residents may use commuter parking spaces during weekend hours. Visitors must follow parking regulations related to their parking lot.

Admissions Parking Lot

The Admissions Parking Lot, adjacent to the Admissions building, is restricted to staff and visitors to Admissions. Visitor’s permits are obtained from Admissions staff.

Public Safety Lot

Faculty/Staff (designated)

Commuters (designated)

Faculty and Staff Parking

(7 a.m. to 6:45 p.m.)

Athletic Complex

Beckett Hall

Burr Hall (designated)

Counseling Services (192/192 High Street)

Goldman/McNedley Lot

Library Lot (designated)

Parking Garages (floors 1-4 with permit)

Shafter Hall – High Street side

Shafter Hall – Nobles Lot

South Campus

South Campus Parking

Noble, Windham Street Apartments, Winthrop, & South Residential Village

Burr Hall (upper)

Knight House Lower Lot

Shafter – High Street (designated)

Windham Street Apartments

Upper Winthrop Lot

Commuter Parking

Athletic Complex

Library Lot (designated)

Parking Garages (floors 1-3 with permit)

Shafter – High Street (designated)

South Campus Parking

Noble, Windham Street Apartments, Winthrop, & South Residential Village

Burr Hall (upper)

Knight House Lower Lot

Shafter – High Street (designated)

Windham Street Apartments

Upper Winthrop Lot

Touring/Non-Resident Parking

Coastal Parking

Campus Map 2013-14

How To Reach Us

- On Street Residential Parking

- Parking Violations (includes but not limited to):
  - Expired meter
  - Fire zone
  - Traffic hazard
  - Handicapped spaces
  - Restricted area
  - No parking
  - Not in lines
  - Winter storm violation
  - Improper display of permits
  - Displaying multiple permits
  - Other

- Parking on sidewalks, lawns, against curbs or any area not specifically designated as a parking area is not allowed.

- The Campus Speed Limit is 15 M.P.H.
HANDICAPPED SPACES
Section 14-253a of the Connecticut General Statutes prohibits the use of designated handicapped parking spaces unless the vehicle operator or passenger has a valid state handicapped permit displayed on a plate or placard. Handicapped permits are issued to the individual, not the vehicle. Unauthorized display or use is a violation of federal and state law.

TOWING/TOW ANNOUNCEMENTS
The University reserves the right to tow vehicles at the owner’s expense (without notice to the operator) from load zones, tow zones, fire lanes or handicapped spaces; or for vehicles that present a hazard or impede normal and/or emergency operations. Individuals authorized by your permit) • Sidewalk or lawn • No permit • Not authorized • Damaged (coin deposit required)

WINDSHIELD TOWING PERMIT
Members of the University community may purchase a temporary parking permit prior to parking on University property. Permit applications must be brought to the Police Department. All permits (except for Faculty/Staff) must be mailed-in applications. If you have a replacement vehicle and need a new permit, please call the Police Department at (860) 465-5310 for an escort or for the Shuttle Bus Service.

HELPFUL HINTS
1. The University Police Department is open 24 hours a day, seven days a week.
2. Blue emergency phones are installed throughout campus for your safety. Those telephones are a direct line to the University Police Department.
3. If you are concerned about your safety while walking from one campus location to another, please call the University Police Department at (860) 465-5310 or for the Shuttle Bus Service.
4. Be at least 15-30 minutes early for class to assist in locating parking in your designated area. See section on “Where to Park.”
5. If your vehicle becomes disabled, leave a note on the dashboard with your name and phone number and call the University Police Department at (860) 465-5310 or call 911.
6. Please remember to park only in areas designated by your permit.

NOTICE! Eastern Connecticut State University shall not be liable for any loss, theft, damage, whether accidental or intentional, including vandalism, which may occur to a vehicle while said vehicle is parked on University property, or being towed or otherwise removed from University property. Further, Eastern Connecticut State University shall not be liable or otherwise responsible, based upon the issuance of any parking permit, for any bodily injury, theft or property damage caused by the unfenced or motor vehicle pursuant to University parking regulations.