Fall 2014 Graduate School Fair

Eastern’s Center for Internships and Career Development (CICD) held its annual Graduate School Fair on October 29 in the Betty Tipton Room. Eastern students were excited to attend the event due to the high number of colleges in attendance and the overall turnout of over 250 students who attended. Eastern students and graduate school representatives were also extremely pleased.

CICD’s staff was very pleased with more than 40 students in attendance. The workshop was one of the best attended during the fall 2014 semester with more than 40 students in attendance. The workshop was critical to their career development. The atmosphere was warm and inviting, with more than 40 students in attendance. The workshop was highly informative and engaging, offering valuable insights and tips for preparing for a successful interview. Students were enthusiastic and engaged, actively participating in discussions and asking insightful questions. The event was a great success, providing valuable opportunities for students to explore their career options and connect with potential graduate schools.

Fall 2014 Career & Internship Fair

On Wednesday, October 29, Eastern’s Center for Internships and Career Development and the Center for Internships and Career Development in Eastern’s Alumnae’s Graduate School. This annual event, attended by more than 40 students in attendance. The workshop was one of the best attended during the fall 2014 semester with more than 40 students in attendance. The workshop was critical to their career development. The atmosphere was warm and inviting, with more than 40 students in attendance. The workshop was highly informative and engaging, offering valuable insights and tips for preparing for a successful interview. Students were enthusiastic and engaged, actively participating in discussions and asking insightful questions.

The event was a great success, providing valuable opportunities for students to explore their career options and connect with potential graduate schools. The fair was well-attended with more than 40 students in attendance, indicating the high interest in graduate school among Eastern students. The event concluded with a group photo of all participants, marking the successful conclusion of the fall 2014 Graduate School Fair.

Fall 2014 Workshops hosted by the CICD

On Wednesday, September 24, the Center for Internships and Career Development held one of its most popular workshops. “Success: Resume Writing and More” was the title of the session. This workshop was attended by more than 40 students in attendance. The workshop was presented by CICD Assistant Director P.J. Roselle. The students were engaged and interactive, participating actively in discussions and asking insightful questions. The workshop was highly informative and engaging, offering valuable insights and tips for preparing an effective resume.

The presentation was very engaging and many students took notes even after the workshop. The workshop was critical to their career development. The atmosphere was warm and inviting, with more than 40 students in attendance. The workshop was highly informative and engaging, offering valuable insights and tips for preparing an effective resume. Students were enthusiastic and engaged, actively participating in discussions and asking insightful questions.

Center for Internships and Career Development

Wood Support Building
860-486-2700
www2.esu.edu/cicd

On Wednesday, September 24, the Center for Internships and Career Development held one of its most popular workshops. “Success: Resume Writing and More” was the title of the session. This workshop was attended by more than 40 students in attendance. The workshop was presented by CICD Assistant Director P.J. Roselle. The students were engaged and interactive, participating actively in discussions and asking insightful questions. The workshop was highly informative and engaging, offering valuable insights and tips for preparing an effective resume.

The presentation was very engaging and many students took notes even after the workshop. The workshop was critical to their career development. The atmosphere was warm and inviting, with more than 40 students in attendance. The workshop was highly informative and engaging, offering valuable insights and tips for preparing an effective resume. Students were enthusiastic and engaged, actively participating in discussions and asking insightful questions.

Center for Internships and Career Development

Wood Support Building
860-486-2700
www2.esu.edu/cicd

RESUME WORKSHOP

On Wednesday, September 24, the Center for Internships and Career Development held one of its most popular workshops. “Success: Resume Writing and More” was the title of the session. This workshop was attended by more than 40 students in attendance. The workshop was presented by CICD Assistant Director P.J. Roselle. The students were engaged and interactive, participating actively in discussions and asking insightful questions. The workshop was highly informative and engaging, offering valuable insights and tips for preparing an effective resume. Students were enthusiastic and engaged, actively participating in discussions and asking insightful questions.

The presentation was very engaging and many students took notes even after the workshop. The workshop was critical to their career development. The atmosphere was warm and inviting, with more than 40 students in attendance. The workshop was highly informative and engaging, offering valuable insights and tips for preparing an effective resume. Students were enthusiastic and engaged, actively participating in discussions and asking insightful questions.