London Theatre Program Summer 2014
(Approximate dates: June 29 – July 27, 2014; pending flight arrangements)

This month-long program is headquartered in London, England and includes classes, workshops, tours, and field trips in London and to other artistic sites in England. Explore the theatre arts using London and its environs as the classroom through extensive out-of-classroom field trips and experiential opportunities. The program curriculum includes attendance at shows; backstage and museum tours; master classes and workshops led by professional British theatre artists; and tours of historical/artistic sites such as:

Courses:
(Required) THE 476: Theatre on Tour, 3 credits, taught by Professor Ellen Faith Brodie (Spring 2014) offered to prepare for the London program and completed during the summer.

(Optional) THE 480: Theatre Independent Study, 1 credit, taught by Professors Brodie and Pellegrini (Summer 2014) offered in conjunction with THE 476 while in London.

The cost of the program is $4500 for the entire month-long program. The cost includes round-trip airfare, lodging, tickets to required theatre shows and required museum entrance fees, month-long underground (subway) passes, and required weekday and weekend field trip transportation to sites outside of London. Additional travel time beyond the academic program is allotted. The application with a $1500 deposit is due December 1, 2013; the balance is due March 1, 2014 (with the optional Independent Study forms to be signed by the instructors). Deposits are non-refundable. If you choose to take the optional Independent Study, the fees for the 1 credit Independent Study Summer 2014 course will be billed directly by the Bursar’s Office. Scholarships and Financial Aid applications are available for this program!

Instructors:
Ellen Faith Brodie, Professor & Director of Theatre Performing Arts Department, Shafer 13 (860) 465-5122; BrodieE@easternct.edu
David Pellegrini, Professor & PAD Co-Chair Performing Arts Department, Shafer 12 (860) 465-5583; PellegrinID@easternct.edu