Host: Hello and welcome to Segment Four, establishing classroom rules. I’m Maria Boykin, your host. Let’s take a look at our objectives for this segment.

Host: First, we’ll discuss why children should be involved in setting rules in the classroom. Next, we’ll describe the process of creating rules with children during a class meeting. And finally, we’ll discuss how you can use child-created rules throughout the year to promote positive classroom behavior. Let’s get started.
