1. As you think about your lesson today and how it progressed, what aspects of your instruction were most effective in helping students learn? What evidence supports your conclusions?

2. If you made changes or adjustments during your lesson, what were they and what led you to make them?

3. If you could teach this lesson again, what would you do differently?

4. In our pre-conference we discussed students requiring differentiated instruction. Briefly describe what you observed about each student’s performance relative to the lesson objective.

5. What have you learned that will impact your planning for future lessons, either in terms of your own instructional skills or in addressing students’ instructional needs?
