

Spring Break in Jamaica Spring 2012 – March 17 – 24, 2012

SP 2012 EDU 457 – Global Educational Field Experience in Jamaica, a proposed 3 credit Tier II Cultural Perspective course (approval pending)

Prerequisite: Permission of Instructor – Dr. David L. Stoloff

History major and Student Government President Wiley Dawson and friends at Bethel Primary and Junior High School, Hopewell, Jamaica, March 21, 2011

SP 2011 GFE-Jamaica participants (left to right): Roseline Gonzalez, Katherine Roome, Whitley Mingo, David Stoloff, Wiley Dawson Jr., Solana Cofield Rivera, Julisa De Los Santos, Catherine Dillon, Megan Sniffin

Highlights: Serve as a teaching aide at an infant school, primary, junior high, or high school in Hanover or St. James parishes in Jamaica, study ecotourism, interact with Jamaican teachers and students, and experience Jamaican culture.

Approximate Cost: $1,800

(includes airfare, ground transportation, housing, and most meals)

Deposit due by November 30, 2011 - $250.

Please also register for EDU 457 for Spring 2012, Thursdays, 7 – 9:45 pm.

For more information or to get on the interest list, please contact:

Dr. David Stoloff, stoloff@easternct.edu, (860)465-5501