Uncommon People: Digital Technology and the Struggle for Community
Wednesday, Jan. 25, 3 pm, Student Center, Theatre
Jessa Lingel, a social scientist and digital activist examines the capacity of digital technologies to support countercultural communities.

Slam Poet: Jinahie
Wednesday, Jan. 25, 7 pm
Join Jinahie, spoken-word artist of Egyptian-American heritage in promoting authenticity, diversity, and women’s empowerment.

Martin Luther King Jr. Distinguished Service Awards Ceremony
Wednesday, Feb. 22, 3 pm
Student Center, Theatre
Awards honoring members of the Eastern campus and community-at-large whose actions reflect King’s values and further the goals of diversity and social equity.

Selma and a Discussion
Tuesday, Feb. 28, Student Center, Theatre
A screening and talk on Selma, focusing on questions about race, justice, organizing and advocacy.

Strange Like Me
Tuesday, Mar. 1, 5 pm
Student Center, Betty Tipton Room
Strange Like Me begins with a monologue that lays bare the ugliness of hate, setting the stage for a lively discussion of diversity.

Social Justice Week Film Screening and Discussion
Wednesday, Mar. 29, Student Center, Theatre
Learn about Title IX and how it has affected the culture of women’s sports and how you can be proactive in advancing the goals of this federal law.

Blackout Day
Monday, Mar. 6, 3 pm
Student Center, Theatre
Show support for #EasternBlackOut and join us for a conversation after with Art Munin.

No Need for Big Bucks, Run for a State Senate Seat
Tuesday, Apr. 5, 4 pm
Student Center, Pride Center
Film screening and discussion designed to increase and deepen understandings about social injustices.

Social Justice Week
Wednesday, Mar. 29, University Hour
Hear a panel of diverse women, Eastern students, alumni and current service members, discuss what it means to be a woman in today’s armed forces.

César Chávez Distinguished Service Award Ceremony
Wednesday, Apr. 19, University Hour
Awards honoring members of the Eastern campus and community-at-large whose work reflect Chávez’ advocacy and service to community.

Lavender Graduation
Monday, Apr. 24, 6 pm
Library, Paul E. Johnson Community Room
Lavender Graduation is a special ceremony for LGBTQ and Ally undergraduate and graduate students to acknowledge their achievements, contributions, and unique experiences at Eastern.

It is the policy of Eastern Connecticut State University to ensure equal access to its events. If you are an individual with a disability and will need accommodations for this event, please contact the Unity Wing Director, Stansheema Byrum at 860-465-4314 or email byrumos@easternct.edu.