THE POWER OF ONE

SPRING 2014

JANUARY

University Hour: Women & Wealth
Wednesday, January 22, 3pm
Student Center, Theatre
Join us for an informative seminar to discuss how to take charge of your financial life.

FEBRUARY

Carlos Andrés Gómez
Monday, February 3, 4pm
Student Center, Cafeteria
Award-winning poet, actor, and writer Carlos Andrés Gómez will perform spoken word pieces addressing various themes around masculinity, identity, and other realities that determine what makes a man.

To Write Love on Her Arms
Wednesday, February 5, All Day
Student Center, Tipton Room
To Write Love on Her Arms is a non-profit movement dedicated to presenting hope and finding help for people struggling with depression, addiction, self-harm, and suicide. TWLOHA exists to encourage, inform and inspire.

March

Martin Luther King Jr.
Distinguished Service Award Ceremony
Wednesday, February 19, 6pm
Library, Johnson Room
Come honor individuals whose actions demonstrate distinguished service in promoting the civic ideals of civil rights activist Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Black & White Ball
Thursday, February 20, 6pm
Student Center, Tipton Room
A program to celebrate the life and time of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., while reflecting on where we've come from, where we are, and where we are going.

Color of the Rainbow: A Dialogue on the Experiences of LGBTQIA People of Color
Thursday, February 27, 7pm
Student Center, Room 115
This interactive session will shed light on the unique experiences and challenges that cultural differences present for LGBTQIA people of color.

APRIL

University Hour: A Talk with Chief Justice Rogers
Wednesday, March 5, 3pm
Student Center, Theatre
Chief Justice Chase Rogers has been the Chief Justice of the Connecticut Supreme Court since 2007. Rogers will speak about access to justice as a human right.

Ella T. Grasso
Distinguished Service Award Ceremony
Wednesday, March 26, 6pm
Library, Johnson Room
Come honor individuals whose actions demonstrate distinguished service in promoting Ella T. Grasso's ideas to advance women's rights and gender equity.

University Hour: The Economic Argument for Ethnic Studies
Wednesday, April 23, 3pm
Student Center, Theatre
A talk on our nation's growing ethnic and racial groups and why ethnic studies are critical for those who are affecting an increasing number of professions and careers.

University Hour: We Remember
Wednesday, April 9, 3pm
Student Center, Theatre
Come discuss current issues about interpersonal violence and a community response that empowers all to become a part of the solution.

University Hour: Race Off
Wednesday, March 26, 7pm
Student Center, Theatre
Kye Allums is the first openly transgender Division I athlete in sports history. Come hear Kye discuss the challenges and triumphs that came along with coming out to teammates, family, and the world.

University Hour: Shooting History's 1st Free Throw
Wednesday, March 5, 3pm
Student Center, Theatre
Kye Allums is the first openly transgender Division I athlete in sports history. Come hear Kye discuss the challenges and triumphs that came along with coming out to teammates, family, and the world.

University Hour: The Butch Factor
Wednesday, April 9, 3pm
Student Center, Theatre
Leora Lloréns will discuss the study, "Beyond the Self: Towards an Integral Approach to an Anti-Racist Pedagogy in Elementary Education," which examines manifestations of racism in Puerto Rico's elementary school curriculum and classroom.

University Hour: We Remember
Wednesday, April 9, 3pm
Student Center, Theatre
Come discuss current issues about interpersonal violence and a community response that empowers all to become a part of the solution.

University Hour: The Invisible War
Monday, March 3, 4pm
Library, Johnson Room
The Invisible War is a groundbreaking investigation that exposes the epidemic of rape within the U.S. military today.

University Hour: The Way of the Elders: Buddhism and the Lao Community in Connecticut
Tuesday, April 8, 7pm
Library, Johnson Room
A talk with Eastern Warriors who have committed to ending interpersonal violence in our community and around the world.

University Hour: Celebrating the Release of Jake Adam York's "Abide"
Tuesday, April 22, 5:30pm
Science Building, Room 104
Inscription for Air is a poetry reading commemorating the release of Abide, the final book of poems by Jake Adam York. Join us for a celebration of art that remembers the martyrs of the troubled times in our country’s history and strives to inspire peace and social justice.

University Hour: Celebrating the Release of Jake Adam York’s “Abide”
Tuesday, April 22, 5:30pm
Science Building, Room 104
Inscription for Air is a poetry reading commemorating the release of Abide, the final book of poems by Jake Adam York. Join us for a celebration of art that remembers the martyrs of the troubled times in our country’s history and strives to inspire peace and social justice.

University Hour: A Walk with Eastern Warriors Against Violence
Tuesday, April 1, 11am
Student Center, Patio
Come honor individuals whose actions demonstrate distinguished service in promoting the spirit of human rights activist Cesar Chavez.

University Hour: A Talk with Chief Justice Rogers
Wednesday, April 10, 6pm
Student Center, Theatre
Chief Justice Chase Rogers has been the Chief Justice of the Connecticut Supreme Court since 2007. Rogers will speak about access to justice as a human right.

Bridgeroom: A Love Story about Marriage Equality
Wednesday, April 16, 7pm
Student Center, Tipton Room
After Shane Bitney Crone’s partner died in a tragic accident, Shane suffered injustice in the aftermath of his death. Come hear him share his experiences, as well as excerpts from his documentary, Bridgeroom.

University Hour: The Invisible War
Monday, March 3, 7pm
Student Center, Theatre
Teja Arboled will present a multimedia performance on the history of racial categories and the impact of race in society.

Film Screening: The Butch Factor
Monday, March 31, 7pm
Student Center, Theatre
This documentary explores gay men’s relationships to masculinity and seeks to combat cultural stereotypes and internalized oppression.

Race Off
Wednesday, March 26, 7pm
Student Center, Theatre
Teja Arboled will present a multimedia performance on the history of racial categories and the impact of race in society.

University Hour: The Way of the Elders: Buddhism and the Lao Community in Connecticut
Tuesday, April 8, 1pm
Library, Johnson Room
A talk with Eastern Warriors who have committed to ending interpersonal violence in our community and around the world.

University Hour: We Remember
Wednesday, April 9, 3pm
Student Center, Theatre
Come discuss current issues about interpersonal violence and a community response that empowers all to become a part of the solution.

University Hour: The Invisible War
Monday, March 3, 4pm
Library, Johnson Room
The Invisible War is a groundbreaking investigation that exposes the epidemic of rape within the U.S. military today.

University Hour: The Way of the Elders: Buddhism and the Lao Community in Connecticut
Tuesday, April 8, 7pm
Library, Johnson Room
A talk with Eastern Warriors who have committed to ending interpersonal violence in our community and around the world.

University Hour: A Walk with Eastern Warriors Against Violence
Tuesday, April 1, 11am
Student Center, Patio
Come honor individuals whose actions demonstrate distinguished service in promoting the spirit of human rights activist Cesar Chavez.

University Hour: We Remember
Wednesday, April 9, 3pm
Student Center, Theatre
Come discuss current issues about interpersonal violence and a community response that empowers all to become a part of the solution.

University Hour: A Talk with Chief Justice Rogers
Wednesday, March 5, 3pm
Student Center, Theatre
Chief Justice Chase Rogers has been the Chief Justice of the Connecticut Supreme Court since 2007. Rogers will speak about access to justice as a human right.

Ella T. Grasso
Distinguished Service Award Ceremony
Wednesday, March 26, 6pm
Library, Johnson Room
Come honor individuals whose actions demonstrate distinguished service in promoting Ella T. Grasso’s ideas to advance women’s rights and gender equity.

University Hour: The Economic Argument for Ethnic Studies
Wednesday, April 23, 3pm
Student Center, Theatre
A talk on our nation’s growing ethnic and racial groups and why ethnic studies are critical for those who are affecting an increasing number of professions and careers.

Cesar Chavez Distinguished Service Awards Ceremony
Wednesday, April 23, 6pm
Library, Johnson Room
Come honor individuals whose actions demonstrate distinguished service in promoting the spirit of human rights activist Cesar Chavez.

Documenting & Challenging Racial Hierarchies in Puerto Rican Classrooms
Thursday, April 24, 2pm
Student Center, Theatre
A cultural anthropologist, Hilda Lloréns will discuss the study, “Beyond the Self: Towards an Integral Approach to an Anti-Racist Pedagogy in Elementary Education,” which examines manifestations of racism in Puerto Rico’s elementary school curriculum and classroom.

It is the policy of Eastern Connecticut State University to ensure equal access to its events. If you are an individual with a disability and will need accommodations for the event, please contact the Office of AccessAbility Services at (860) 465-5573. In order to provide accommodations in a timely manner, please submit the request at least two weeks prior to the event.