Eastern to Host Nonprofit Board Training Event

Willimantic, Conn.—Eastern Connecticut State University's (ECSU) Nonprofit Leadership and Philanthropy Initiative is co-sponsoring a board training event with the School of Continuing Education and the United Way on Tuesday, Sept. 14. The training will run from 5 p.m. – 8 p.m. The second part of the training will be held Tuesday, Oct. 12. Marsha Levinson Mason, director of the United Way's Nonprofit Resource and Training Center, will lead the training in Eastern's Presidential Dining Room in Hurley Hall.

The training is primarily designed for executive directors and board members from area nonprofits. However, Eastern students, faculty and staff currently involved with local nonprofits, as well as those interested in learning more, are encouraged to attend. Some of the local organizations that will be present are WAIM, Literacy Volunteers, the Community Foundation of NE CT, United Services, Access, Habitat for Humanity, Card Home, and Curbstone Press.

For more information regarding this event, please contact Eric Martin, assistant professor of business administration, at (860) 465-0245 or e-mail martine@easternct.edu.
