Eastern Welcomes Two New Police Officers

Willimantic, CT – On June 10, police officers Martin Praisner and Brian Fantry joined Eastern Connecticut State University's Police Department.

Praisner has been a police officer since 2001, serving the Groton Town Police and the campus police at the University of Connecticut. He is a certified bike officer and a child safety seat technician.

Officer Fantry has been a police officer in the city of Hartford since 2003. Fantry is also a certified fire fighter and has served as an emergency services officer at United Technologies Pratt and Whitney.
