Eastern to Host Willimantic Orchestra

Willimantic, CT— Eastern Connecticut State University's Department of Performing Arts will host the Willimantic Orchestra's first concert of the 2005-2006 season on Oct. 30. The performance will begin at 3 p.m. and will take place in the Shafer Auditorium, located at the corner of Windham and Valley Streets in Willimantic. The public is invited. Admission is free. Donations are gratefully accepted.

The program will include works from various composers, including Johann Strauss, Sr. J.S. Bach, and Franz Joseph Haydn. The concert will also feature members of the Eveready-for-Bach Violin Choir, who will play solo parts during the presentation of Bach's Concerto for Two Violins and Orchestra.

For more information regarding this concert, please contact Scott Lehmann, president of the Willimantic Orchestra, at (860) 423-5807.

It is the policy of Eastern Connecticut State University to ensure equal access to its events. If you are an individual with a disability and will need accommodations for this event, please contact the Office of University Relations at (860) 465-5735.
