2006 Career Odyssey

Willimantic, CT-- The Offices of Career Services and Housing & Residential Life are pleased to invite you to participate in Eastern Connecticut State University's Career Odyssey program on Saturday, April 22, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. The personal and professional workshops are part of a campus-wide community day filled with information, education and fun!

The day will begin with check-in at the Paul E. Johnson, Sr. Community Room in the J. Eugene Smith Library at 9 a.m. The day will begin with our keynote speaker and a complimentary continental breakfast at 9:30 a.m. Workshops start at 10 a.m. and conclude at 1 p.m. in various classrooms of Webb Hall. Career Odyssey ends with a catered "Etiquette Luncheon" program in the Johnson Community Room. The Eastern Community Fair runs from 1 p.m. – 4 p.m. on the Webb Hall Lawn.

Workshop presenters are accomplished professionals in their respective fields and will be providing insight in the areas of career development, money management, financial planning, entrepreneurship, liberal arts careers and dining etiquette. A detailed description of each workshop and presenters biographies can be found on the Office of Career Services website, www.easternct.edu/depts/career.

Registration and a registration fee are required for participants. Registration materials can be found online at www.easternct.edu/depts/career. If you have any further questions, please call the Office of Career Services at 860.465.4559.
