

Eastern Connecticut State University

NEWS

Thursday, April 18, 2006

For Immediate Release

Contact: Ed Osborn,

Director of Public Relations

(860) 465-5043 <Osborne@easternct.edu>

Marissa DeCapua, Public Relations Assistant

DeCapuam@stu.easternct.edu

Community Day 2006

Willimantic, CT—Eastern Connecticut State University is hosting Community Day 2006 on Saturday, April 22, from 1 p.m.-4 p.m. on Webb Hall Lawn. It will be a great opportunity for the University and local community to come together.

Community Day 2006 will feature a Career Odyssey from 9 a.m.-1 p.m. and a community resource fair providing employment, service, and internship opportunities from 1 p.m.-4 p.m on Webb Hall Lawn. Businesses from the local area will be present to recruit employees.

Also taking place will be children's activities including arts and crafts, games, face painting, food, and prizes. There will be live entertainment featuring "The Farmer Rick Band," open mic featuring student performers, a juggler, and an opportunity to have your picture taken with the Eastern Warrior Cat.

There will be a sculpture show displaying student artwork and showcasing different aspects of Eastern (Location TBA) and the University Police Department will have fire prevention and fire safety displays.

Occum Stock also will be taking place at the Occum Hall parking lot located on North Campus on the same day. Occum Stock is a mini carnival that will include games, prizes, and tons of fun. There will be an information table displayed at the Clock Tower located behind the J. Eugene Smith Library.

Community Day is sponsored by the Division of Student Affairs, The Office of Substance Abuse Prevention, Career Services, Judicial Affairs, Community Service, and the Windham/ Eastern Community Action Network. For more information call (860) 465-0684.

#

Eastern Connecticut State University is part of the Connecticut State University (CSU) system and is the state's public liberal arts university. ECSU serves more than 5,000 students each year on its Willimantic campus.