

Faith in Discovery: Science in Action!
Schedule

Tuesday Nov. 14

“Evolution: Does It Really Deserve a Warning Sticker?”
Liz Cowles: Webb 110; 9:30-10:45 a.m.

“On the Road Again: Green Automobile Technology”
Fred Loxsom: Webb 110; 11 a.m.-12:15 p.m.

“Real Life CSI? Forensic Science in Connecticut”
Eric Carita '02, Connecticut State Police Forensics Lab
Web 110; 12:30-1:45 p.m.

“The Technology of the Turn-of-the-Century New England Textile Mill:
Willimantic’s American Thread Company as an Example”
Jamie Eves: Webb 110; 2-3:15 p.m.

Science Equipment Display and Videos; Goddard Hall Lobby; 10 a.m.-4 p.m.

Wednesday Nov. 16

“Controversial Science: A Staged Reading”
Eastern Theater Group: Shafer Auditorium; 4:15-5:15 p.m.

“Seeing Stars”
Russ Sampson and Zoran Pazemeta: Wickware Planetarium; 5:30-6:15 p.m.

Science Equipment Display and Videos; Goddard Hall Lobby; 10 a.m.-4 p.m.

Thursday Nov. 17

“Psychological Science as a Buffer Against Fraud: How to Blow a Lot of Cash and Not Cure Autism”
Luis Cordon: Webb 110; 9:30-10:45 a.m.

“Where Do We Come From? Mediated Presentations on the Debate Between Evolution and Anti-Evolution Advocates”
Nicole Krassas: Webb 110; 11 a.m.-12:15 p.m.

“Radiometric Age Dating: You Couldn’t Live a Day Without It”
Tim Schroeder: Webb 110; 2-3:15 p.m.

“From Our Star to Mars: Science Rules!”
Bill Nye the Science Guy! (Arts and Lecture Series Event)
Francis E. Geissler Gymnasium; 7 p.m. (tickets@easternct.edu)