Eastern Students Inducted into Spanish Honor Society

Willimantic, Conn. – Eight Eastern Connecticut State University students were inducted into the Sigma Delta Pi Spanish Honor Society on April 28. The students were joined by family, friends and faculty members of the Department of Modern and Classical Languages to celebrate the occasion.

Created in 1919, the society recognizes students who, having three years of Spanish or the equivalent, are in the upper 35 percent of their class and hold at least a 3.0 cumulative GPA in their Spanish courses. Students elected must show good moral character and a genuine interest in Hispanic culture.

This year's inductees to Eastern's Nu Chi chapter of Sigma Delta Pi are:

Edwin Alverio – Willimantic, CT

Jessica Ashton – Windham, CT

James Batchelder – Vernon, CT

Michelle Bruneau – Cheshire, CT

Christina Cavallaro – Shelton, CT

Lauren Jordan – Plainfield, CT

Juan Carlos Paredes – Eastford, CT

Racheal Renfree – Danielson, CT
