Eastern Professor Named Willimantic Lions Club President

Willimantic, Conn. – Charles Wynn, professor of chemistry at Eastern Connecticut State University, has been named president of the Willimantic Lions Club for 2007-2008. A ceremony will be held on June 19 at 6:45 p.m. in the Desrosier-Bernard Room of Windham Community Memorial Hospital to install Wynn and others as officers of the club.

Wynn, a member of the club for the past four years, said, “I am looking forward to continuing the Willimantic Lion Club’s commitment to serving the community by promoting its service and fundraising projects.”

Wynn is also coordinator of general chemistry and assistant chair of the Department of Physical Science at Eastern. In addition to publishing several books, he has been teaching at the university for the past 28 years.

Lions Clubs International is the world’s largest service organization with nearly 1.35 million members in approximately 45,000 clubs in 200 countries and geographical areas around the world. For membership information or questions, please contact Wynn at (860) 465-5258.
