Eastern Gets Grant for Canadian Studies

Willimantic, Conn. – For the fifth consecutive year the Canadian Studies program at Eastern Connecticut State University is a recipient of a $4,500 grant from the Canadian government.

Professor Robert Horrocks, who leads the program's advisory committee, said the money will be used to support Canadian Studies curriculum by bringing Canadian faculty members to campus to speak with students and faculty, develop collaborative research projects and encourage Eastern students to study in Canada. Eastern has student exchange relationships with more than 30 Quebec and Nova Scotia universities.

###

Eastern Connecticut State University is part of the Connecticut State University (CSU) system and is the state's public liberal arts university. ECSU serves more than 5,000 students each year on its Willimantic campus.

It is the policy of Eastern Connecticut State University to ensure equal access to its events. If you are an individual with a disability and will need accommodations for this event, please contact the Office of University Relations at (860) 465-5735.
