Eastern to Host Community Concert of Latin Music

Willimantic, Conn. –Eastern Connecticut State University is hosting a free community concert of Latin American music, dance, and song on April 23, starting at 7 p.m. The concert takes place in Eastern’s Student Center Theater. The concert is part of the Eastern’s celebration of Latin American Awareness Month. The public is invited. Admission is free.

Performers include Julia Muench, a guest pianist from Monmouth Conservatory in New Jersey; flamenco guitarist James Dina of Eastern’s performing arts department; a group of student singers from the Arts at the Capitol Theater performing arts magnet school on Main Street; and a group of student dancers from Windham Middle School. Seating is limited; to reserve your seat, e-mail lecture@easternct.edu or call (860) 465-5735.

Earlier, at 3 p.m., as part of Eastern’s University Hour series, Muench will perform in the Paul E. Johnson, Sr. Community Conference Room of the J. Eugene Smith Library. She will provide musical accompaniment to a video she produced on the Guatemalan Children’s Project.

Eastern Connecticut State University is part of the Connecticut State University (CSU) system and is the state’s public liberal arts university. ECSU serves more than 5,000 students each year on its Willimantic campus. It is the policy of Eastern Connecticut State University to ensure equal access to its events. If you are an individual with a disability and will need accommodations for this event, please contact the Office of University Relations at (860) 465-5735.
