

“Above the Timberline”

Written, Produced, and Directed by Jeffrey Cullen and Vinnie Manierre shows how a group of Eastern students take on a mountain with the world’s worst weather. The documentary was made for Eastern’s Documentary Production Course 430, taught by Professor Denise Matthews. This movie showcases the production skills that were demonstrated in the course.