Occasionally, families may experience unusual circumstances that affect their ability to pay for educational expenses. Federal regulations governing financial aid are quite specific about what can, and cannot, be taken into consideration toward a re-evaluation of the “Expected Family Contribution” (EFC). The purpose of a Special Circumstance application is to update the information submitted on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) from the 2013 to the projected 2014 information. Once this update is complete, an adjustment to your Expected Family Contribution (EFC) may be made. These adjustments will only be made if the 2013 income information reported on your FAFSA is more than your anticipated 2014 income with the exception of a parent in college, out of pocket medical expenses, and educational expenses. We suggest that you make university bill payment arrangements prior to the processing of your Special Circumstance Reevaluation request, in that adjustments to your EFC may not result in additional financial aid.

THE FOLLOWING MUST BE INCLUDED WITH YOUR APPLICATION

- Dependent students must submit the following documents for themselves and their parent(s).
- Independent students must submit the following documents for themselves and their spouse.
  - A signed copy of your 2013 Tax Transcript with all pages and schedules attached.
  - A copy of your 2013 W-2s
  - Copy of most recent/last paycheck stub. Write frequency of pay on stub (i.e. biweekly/monthly). Paycheck stubs are not needed for medical/educational expenses or parent in college
  - Documentation that verifies all untaxed income reported on the 2014/2015 FAFSA (e.g. alimony, child support, disability)

The goal of the office is to process applications within 4-6 weeks from the date all required documents are received.

Special circumstances that we will consider for re-evaluation are as follows:

- Layoff/Termination/Reduced Hours or Wages for at least 10 weeks prior to application Required Documentation: Letter from your employer stating the effective date of layoff/termination and last day paid. If laid off, letter should include anticipated date of return. If reduced hours/wages, letter should state when the reduction began and how many hours you will be working for the remainder of the year. If you are receiving unemployment/severance etc., please include documentation of total payments anticipated/received between Jan – Dec 2014.

- Loss of Alimony/Child Support/Social Security/Unemployment (monies received in 2013 that decreased or ceased in 2014). Required Documentation: If loss of alimony/child support, submit recent court documentation such as a divorce decree or termination order stating the effective date and the total amount received/anticipated between Jan – Dec 2014. If loss of social security/unemployment, submit letter from Agency stating last date of payment and total amount received/anticipated from Jan – Dec 2014.

- Divorce/ Death of Parent or Spouse after you filed the FAFSA. Required Documentation: If divorce, submit court documentation such as a divorce decree or separation agreement stating effective date of new situation. If you are receiving alimony or child support, please include documentation of total payments anticipated/received between Jan – Dec 2014. In the death of a parent/spouse, please submit a copy of the Death Certificate.

- Parent in College enrolled in a degree or cert. at least half-time (6 undergraduate/4 graduate credit hours). Required Documentation: Submit a copy of parent’s class registration and a receipt indicating amount paid or amount financed for specified term that is not covered by any tuition reimbursement plan or programs.

- Medical/Dental Expenses or Elementary/Secondary Tuition Expenses. Required Documentation: Medical/dental expenses paid must exceed at least 10% of total 2013 income. If medical/dental expenses, submit copy of 1040 Schedule A or canceled checks for expenses paid by you that are not covered by insurance. If elementary/secondary tuition expenses, submit letter from school stating amount paid between Jan – Dec 2013.

Please Note: Changes in employment (e.g., loss of job, loss of overtime, change in job) which occur after June 30, 2014 are not eligible for consideration during the 2014-2015 academic year. All such changes will be reflected in the aid eligibility formula upon submission of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) for the 2014-2015 academic year.
