

FYR 314 – First-Year Program Peer Mentor Seminar 2.0 credits Prerequisite:
Acceptance as a FYP Peer Mentor

Within the context of this course, students will be trained as First-Year Program Peer Mentors. In a classroom/seminar setting, students will develop skills in leadership, student development, academic development, and community building. Additionally, each student will be followed as these skills are applied in the First-Year Program's FYI 100 (First-Year Introduction) course.
