

Eastern Connecticut State University
School of Education and Professional Studies and Graduate Division and Education Department

Permission to Enroll in EDU 570: Capstone Seminar

EDU 570: Capstone Seminar is designed to be the last course in all graduate programs in education at Eastern Connecticut State University. This seminar precedes the comprehensive examination, which is the culminating experience in graduate education programs.

To obtain permission to enroll in EDU 570, graduate students will be expected to complete this form through consultation with their graduate advisor. This form is available online at:

<http://www.easternct.edu/depts/graduate/documents/SpecialPermissionForm-EDU570.pdf>

Permission requests to enroll in the Capstone Seminar may be completed via email between the student and advisor. A copy signed by the advisor will be sent to the student and placed in the advisor's files. Students must include their approved EDU 570 permission form when submitting their in-person, mail (Registrar's Office, Alvin B. Wood Support Services Center, 83 Windham Street, Willimantic, Connecticut 06226) or fax (860-465-4382) registration to the Registrar's Office. Web registration is not available.

APPLICANT'S INFORMATION

Name: Telephone:

Address:

Email Address:

Graduate Academic Program and/or Certification Area:

Applicants must attach to this request a copy of their graduate transcript available through <http://eweb.easternct.edu>.

1. Is EDU 570 your last course in your graduate program? Yes No

2. If EDU 570 is NOT your last course in the graduate program, please explain why this variance to your plan of study is being requested.

3. When do you plan to enroll in EDU 570?

Applicant's Signature: Date:

Advisor's Signature: Date: