Building extracurricular activities

The Eastern Connecticut State University Student Activities Spring Fair, held in the Student Center’s Betty Tipton Room, was bustling with students Wednesday afternoon. Tables were set up throughout the room for students to sign up and get information on the many activities organized and run by students. ABOVE: The Caribbean Student Association flaunts some of the activities the group offers to members. LEFT: Genevieve Fritsch, a freshman from Tolland, signs up for Habitat for Humanity.