‘Guerrero and Wright’

The Eastern Connecticut State University Fine Arts Instructional Center Thursday hosted the opening of the exhibition called ‘Guerrero & Wright, Architecture Stories,’ with photographs by Pedro E. Guerrero, Frank Lloyd Wright's photographer. These images were of Wright's houses, inside and out. Guerrero’s photography is said to reflect Wright's architectural philosophy.

ABOVE: At the opening, standing here, is the photographer's daughter, Susan Guerrero, a New York Times editor. BELOW: ECSU faculty members, from the left, Jen Rock from Mansfield Center, Emily Riggs from Vernon and J.J. Cobb from Andover, discuss Guerrero’s work.