2. Announcements
   The University Senate unanimously passed the set of policies for the liberal arts core curriculum.

Old Business

1. Planning for LAC implementation
   a. Capacity planning - Health and wellness requirement
      In a meeting with Dr. Horrocks, Dean Kleine and Dr. Pachis strategies were developed to offer sufficient seats for half of the incoming first year students for fall 2007.
   b. FAQ, Graphic and University Relations materials
      University Relations has agreed to produce an informational brochure for the LAC and the FYP to be ready for mailing on about April 10. This office continues to develop a graphic model of the curriculum.
   c. Timelines
      A preliminary course schedule for spring 2008 will be developed in April 2007. Although the LAC will not need a full complement of Tier II courses for that semester some Tier II courses will be needed, especially by departments employing these as pathways in major courses. Faculty will be requested to submit Tier II course proposals to the LAPC by July 15 for approval for spring 2008.

      Faculty who were requested to resubmit Tier I course proposals will be asked to submit these by April 5 for review for full or temporary approval for fall 2007.

2. Course approvals

   Temporary Approvals
   Tier I: Request for Temporary Approval ENG 125, ENG 226

   ENG 125 Motion (Booth, Gelburd) approved (8/0) for temporary LAC inclusion for fall 2007-spring 2008
   ENG 226 Motion (Singh, Wolf) approved (8/0) for temporary LAC inclusion for fall 2007-spring 2008

   Tier I: Tabled Courses
   The following courses, previously tabled, are approved for temporary LAC inclusion for fall 2007-spring 2008. They will be reviewed for full inclusion as requested materials are received.
