

EES 306 Sustainable Energy and the Environment

Extra-Credit Opportunities

(Earn up to 10 points)

Thursday, April 12, 7:00 pm, Shafer Auditorium, Mae Jemison, African-American Astronaut and environmentalist – Attend lecture & write 1-page essay. You need a ticket – order by email or phone and I'll have some in class. (2 points)

Saturday, April 14, 10:00 am, Mansfield Hollow State Park, Run the Earth Day 5K. Volunteers are needed. Let me know if you are interested. (2 points for volunteering to help and 1 point for running. 0 points if you beat Professor Loxsom – just kidding.)

Monday, April 16, 6:30 pm, Johnson Room, “No Child Left Inside”, Gina McCarthy, Commissioner of the CT DEP – Attend lecture & write 1-page essay. (1 point)

Tuesday, April 17, 11:00 am, Goddard 100, “Sustainability at Eastern” Sustainable Energy Studies students will describe Green Campus projects at Eastern. Attend class & write 1-page essay. (1 point)

Tuesday, April 17, 7:00 pm, Webb 110, “Thirst” – Attend movie & write 1-page essay. (1 point)

Wednesday, April 18, 10 am - 6 pm, Webb Lawn, Help staff the Sustainable Energy Studies table for a 2-hour shift (sign up on the Volunteer Sheet). (1 point per shift) Work all 4 shifts to earn 4 points.

Wednesday, April 18, 7:00 pm, Johnson Room, “Life at the Poles - Today and Tomorrow”, Peter Alden, famous naturalist – Attend lecture & write 1-page essay. (1 point)

Earth Week Class Schedule

Attendance is required.

Tuesday    April 17                    11 AM    Goddard 100

“Sustainability at Eastern” Sustainable Energy Studies students will describe Green Campus projects at Eastern.

Thursday   April 19                    11 AM    Webb 110

“Who killed the Electric Car?” Professor Fred Loxsom will introduce this gripping and controversial documentary about our transportation future.

Assignment

Write an essay about “Who Killed the Electric Car?” and relate it to the course.

Due April 24.