The University Police Department is open 24 hours a day. If your vehicle becomes disabled, leave a note on the windshield regarding the disposition of your appeal. If your appeal is not accepted after the 10-day period. You will be notified in writing of the disposition of your appeal.

If you believe that you have received a ticket in error, you have the right to appeal that ticket. Fines must be paid in full within 10 days of the date of the ticket. Failure to do so will result in the vehicle being towed.

If you appeal a ticket, you must submit an application form along with a copy of your valid driver’s license. You must also notify the University Police Department in order to receive any assistance and to pay for the ticket. You will be given a new ticket with the new due date.

Handicapped permits are issued to the operator or passenger who has a valid state handicapped permit displaying the appropriate symbol. Handicapped permits are not transferable. Only vehicles with handicapped permits are allowed to park in designated handicapped spaces.

The University reserves the right to tow vehicles at the owner’s expense if they present a hazard or impede normal and/or emergency operations. Individuals with five or more violations are subject to having their vehicles towed or otherwise removed from University property. Further, Eastern Connecticut State University shall not be liable for any loss, theft or damage, whether accidental or intentional, including vandalism, which may occur to any motor vehicle or its contents while said motor vehicle is parked on University property, or being towed or otherwise removed from University property.

On-street residential parking areas for the City of Willimantic are posted. The Willimantic Police Department will enforce violations of posted time limitations in these areas including winter storm violations.

The University Police Department provides a shuttle bus service for the University community. All of the shuttle buses are equipped with a lift for individuals who require special assistance. To request ADA services please call the Police Department at (860) 465-5310 for an escort or for the Shuttle Bus Service.

The University Police Department offers a 24-hour Hotline for cancellations and parking bans at (860) 465-4444 or (800) 578-1449.

Helpful Hints

1. The University Police Department is open 24 hours a day, seven days a week.
2. Blue emergency phones are installed throughout campus for your safety. These telephones are a direct line to the University Police Department.
3. If you are concerned about your safety while walking from one campus location to another, please call the University Police Department at (860) 465-5310 for an escort or for the Shuttle Bus Service.
4. Be at least 15-30 minutes early for class to assist in locating parking in your designated area. See section on “Where to Park.”
5. If your vehicle becomes disabled, leave a note on the dashboard including your name and your telephone number. You may also notify the University Police Department in order to avoid receiving a parking violation and/or being towed.
6. Please remember to park only in areas designated by your permit.

Notice: Eastern Connecticut State University shall not be liable for any loss, theft or damage, whether accidental or intentional, including vandalism, which may occur to any motor vehicle or its contents while said motor vehicle is parked on University property, or being towed or otherwise removed from University property. Further, Eastern Connecticut State University shall not be liable or otherwise responsible, based upon the issuance of any parking permit, for any bodily injury, death or property damage caused by the operation of a motor vehicle pursuant to University parking regulations.
The University Police Department is open 24 hours a day. If your vehicle becomes disabled, leave a note on the original fine. After 10 days from the date of your letter, the fine will be doubled. If you believe that you have received a ticket in error, you have the right to appeal to the University Parking Appeals Committee. The decision of the Committee is final.

The University retains the right to revoke parking permits of anyone with a valid Eastern permit.

Fines may be paid at the Bursar’s Office (in the Wood Support Services Center).

Outstanding tickets will prevent you from registering for classes, obtaining transcripts or renewing your parking permit. All outstanding fines will be collected before any parking tickets are issued. HOW TO OBTAIN A PARKING PERMIT

All faculty and staff, commuter and residential students are required to register their vehicles with the Eastern Connecticut State University Police Department (Interim and Summer Sessions included). Permits are valid for the entire academic year. Residential students with less than 24 total credits are not allowed to have a vehicle on campus.

You must submit an application form along with a copy of your valid vehicle registration and proof of enrollment (valid student I.D. or current semester schedule) or employment (valid faculty/staff I.D. or current letter of employment) to the University Police Department. Once verified, you will be issued the appropriate parking permit.

For a student permit application, go to: www.easternct.edu/parking. Permits may be picked up in person.

For fall semester only, mailed-in applications will be accepted until Aug. 21. After that date, completed applications must be brought to the Police Department.

All permits must be permanently affixed to the inside, front windshield, lower passenger side. Remove all previous Eastern permits. All permits are non-transferable.

If you have a replacement vehicle and need a new permit, you are required to remove the permit you were originally issued and bring it to the University Police Department. You will then complete the same steps for a new permit as you did for the original permit.

No one is allowed to have two permits for different areas of the campus for the same school year. Violators will be ticketed.

TEMPORARY PARKING PERMIT

If driving an alternate vehicle, you are required to obtain a temporary parking permit prior to parking on University property. All temporary parking permits may be obtained 24/7 from the University Police Department. You are required to present your valid vehicle registration and student I.D. if applicable. Temporary parking permits must be COMPLETELY DISPLAYED on the front windshield, hanging from the rearview mirror.

Students, faculty and staff are responsible for informing their guests or visitors of the parking permit requirement as well as the rules and regulations to park on University property. All guests and visitors will be assigned designated parking areas by the Police Department upon receipt of the temporary permit. These visitors may also use metered parking in the Library lot with or without permit (coin deposit required). Overnight parking regulations will be enforced.

WHERE TO PARK

• Faculty/staff, commuters and residential students must park in their designated areas at all times.
• All designated parking areas have signs.
• A parking space is clearly marked by two white lines.
• Students are expected to walk or take a shuttle to other areas on campus.
• There is no overnight parking allowed (2 a.m. to 6:45 a.m.) in computer and faculty/staff parking lots, or in metered spaces.
• Violators will be ticketed and/or towed.
• No faculty/staff or student is allowed to park in designated “Visitor” parking spaces at any time.
• There are designated areas for motorcycles and scooters.
• Weekend parking begins on Friday at 6:45 p.m. and ends on Monday at 2 a.m. Residents may use commuter parking areas during weekend hours. Visitors must follow parking regulations related to visitor parking. Overnight parking regulations will still be enforced in commuter and faculty/staff parking lots and metered spaces.
