SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Thursday, September 29
The 2016 Presidential Election: A Panel Discussion with National Experts
7 p.m. • Fine Arts 103

Tuesday, October 4
The Vice Presidential Debate: A Viewing and Discussion
Student Center Theater

Wednesday, October 5
“Events under Tents”
All Day
- Voter Registration
- Campaign Organizations
- Poetry Readings
- Historical Games (with prizes)
Webb/Library Quad

Open Classes
8-8:50 a.m.
Science, Distrust and the 2016 Election
Biology Professor Liz Cowles
Science 301

9-9:50 a.m.
Public Opinion and Political Ads in 2016
Political Science Professors Nicole Krassas and Courtney Broschius
Student Center Theater

The Election of 1896: Lessons Learned
History Professor Caitlin Carenen
Science 301

10-10:50 a.m.
Gender and the 2016 Presidential Election
Professors Cara Bergstrom-Lynch (Sociology) and Jennifer Leszczynski (Psychology)
Webb 110

Protest Music in the 1960s and 1970s
Music Professor Stacy Dziuk
Student Center Theater

Politics and Endangered Species
Biology Professor Kristen Epp
Science 301

Noon-12:50 p.m.
The Rhetoric of Donald Trump
English Professor Rita Malenczyk
Webb 110

The Election of 1800: Lessons Learned
History Professor Tom Balcerski
Student Center Theater

1-1:50 p.m.
Political Hashtags and Election 2016
English Professor Jordan Youngblood
Webb 110

U.S. Elections and Global Inequality
Sociology Professor Dennis Canterbury
Student Center Theater

2-3 p.m.
Civil Rights and Election 2016
Professors Kim Dugan (Sociology) and Nicole Krassas (Political Science)
Student Center Theater

3-4 p.m.
University Hour
Student Presidential Debate
Paul E. Johnson Sr. Community Conference Room
J. Eugene Smith Library

5:30-6:45 p.m.
Reception and Discussion of Visual Democracy: Political Cartoons from the Election
Fine Arts 118

7 p.m.
The Immigrant Project: A Multi-Media, Oral Story-Telling Performance
Studio Theater, Fine Arts Instructional Center

Thursday, October 6
“Events under Tents”
All Day
Webb/Library Quad

Open Class
5:30-6:45 pm.
Impacts of U.S. Foreign Policy
Professors Martin Mendoza-Botelho (Political Science) and Cesar Beltran (Communication)
Student Center Theater

Friday, October 7
Open Class
Noon-1 p.m.
Political Rhetoric and Hillary Clinton
Political Science Professor Nicole Krassas
Student Center Theater

October 4-November 2, 2016
Visual Democracy, Political Cartoons from the Election
Fine Arts Instructional Center, First Floor
www.easternct.edu/democracyatwork/