

Group 2: Where exactly will I find these?

Use the online catalog, CONSULS – Title search, to find Graduate Programs in Psychology.

The screenshot shows the CONSULS online catalog search interface. The search bar contains the text "graduate programs in psychology". A dropdown menu is open, showing search options for various libraries, with "Search ECSU Reference" highlighted and a red arrow pointing to it. The interface includes tabs for Keyword, Title, Author, Subject, and Advanced search, and a list of other search criteria on the right.

Tip: Unless the record has ECSU next to it, you won't find the book at Eastern!

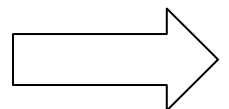

- Write down the call number below.
- Locate this reference book. Tip: Check the Location box in the CONSULS record!
- Briefly describe what kind of information it contains.
- BRING THE BOOK BACK TO THE USER ED ROOM.
- Be prepared to briefly show/tell the rest of the class what you have learned as well as to describe the book you have found.

Reference book title: Graduate Programs in Psychology

Call number:

Type of information in book:

OVER

Look at the Library of Congress Classification (LCC) sheet, identify the letters that correspond to Chemistry and Psychology, and write them below:

Circulation Books

Circulation books are arranged alphabetically by LCC letters.

- Go to the floor for Circulation books and find the areas where your LCC letters are located.
- Browse these areas and find two books of interest (one in Chemistry and one for Psychology).
- Write down the titles of the books you find and their call numbers below.
- Briefly describe what kind of information they contain.
- BRING THE BOOKS BACK TO THE USER ED ROOM.
- Be prepared to briefly show/tell the rest of the class what you have learned as well as to describe the books you have found.

Title #1:

Call number:

Type of information in book:

Title #2:

Call number:

Type of information in book: