President’s Report

Motion #58 (L. DeLaRosa, C. Smith) Move to induct David Porter-Price into the senate for the 2010-2011 academic school year. (21/0/0) Motion carries.

Motion #59 (A. Cross, S. Kerton) Move to accept the minutes from last week’s meeting. (18/0/3) Motion carries.

-Senator Marci Reisman lead the senate in an ice breaker as a way for the senate to get a chance to better know each other. The senate stood in two circles, consisting of an inner and outer circle. The inner circle of senators faced the outer circle. Senators were essentially paired with a partner and were to answer questions asked by the leader (Marci Reisman). The circle then rotated giving a chance for each person to meet each other.

Committee updates

Student Issues:

-There were suggestions, reflection and discussion on ways to improve and make changes to the first, successful Wiener Wednesday that was held last week
There was also discussion about making the parking forum a safety forum as well which would include police representation so students can get answers and explanations about the recent robbery activities on campus.

Promotions:

- There is being an article drafted about Wiener Wednesday for the Campus Lantern as a form of promotion for SGA
- There was discussion on finding holiday quotes to develop the holiday cards SGA will be giving to on campus dorms
- There were ideas about getting SGA flashlights or whistles for the upcoming (potential) safety forum

Internal:

- The Hunger Banquet will take place in Mead Hall commons on Nov. 17\textsuperscript{th} at 7:30 pm
