Eastern Honors “Norwich Nine” in Student-Run Play

Willimantic, Conn. – “The Norwich Nine,” a play written, produced and performed by Eastern Connecticut State University students, will be performed at 7 p.m. on April 19 in Eastern’s Student Center Theatre. “The Norwich Nine” tells the story of nine Norwich men who fought in the Civil War, died at the Andersonville Prisoner of War camp in Andersonville, GA, and whose bodies were returned for burial with honors in the Yantic Cemetery in Norwich.

“The Norwich Nine” is part of a series of university events created to celebrate the bicentennial of Abraham Lincoln’s birth.
