World's Religions Series at Eastern

Willimantic, Conn. – As part of the First-Year Colloquium Program at Eastern Connecticut State University, a new weekly series on world religions has been developed for the spring 2009 semester. In conjunction with the colloquium, leaders from 14 different spiritual groups, including Buddhism, Hinduism, Judaism, Roman Catholicism and Humanism, will make presentations.

All sessions will be held on Thursdays, 9:30 to 10:45 a.m. in Webb Hall 214. The first presentation was held from 9:30 a.m. to 10:45 a.m. on Jan. 29 in Webb Hall 214. Dick Mozzer and Doug Paul spoke on behalf of the Church of Christ Scientist. The last session will be held on May 7.

For the entire list of presentations or for more information please contact David Stoloff, stoloffd@easternct.edu, 860-465-5501.
