September

Open House
Wednesday, September 4, 2-4 pm
Student Center, Unity Wing
Visit the Intercultural Center and Women’s Center to learn more about the resources they provide.

The Legacy Project
Wednesday, September 11
University Hour, 3 pm
Student Center, Theatre
Discover your legacy within and begin developing your personal legacy that will impact the lives of future generations in your community, nation, and world.

Literary Reflections
Monday, September 16, 11 am
Library, Room 263
An introduction to the Literary Reflections collection with Dr. Michele Boskovic. Also learn about the Oxford Islamic Studies Online database.

Pathways of Faith
Monday, September 16, 2 pm
Library, 4th Floor Archives
An introduction to the Muslim Journeys collection, and talk on Islam with Dr. Yahya M. Michot.

Points of View and American Stories
Monday, September 16, 3 pm
Library, 4th Floor Archives
A read-in where participants will be able to read aloud from the Muslim Journeys collection.

CT Students for a Dream
Wednesday, September 18
University Hour, 3 pm
Student Center, Theatre
Listen to DREAMers and their allies empower undocumented students by advocating for their rights and raising awareness about the issues they face.

We Are Blended
Thursday, September 19, 6 pm
Student Center, Tipton Room
Join the nationwide movement that unites foreign-born students with U.S.-born students.

Islamic Art Spots
Thursday, September 19, 6 pm
Library, Johnson Room
Enjoy screenings of short films on Islamic art and culture, samplings of Mediterranean cuisine, and free henna tattoos.

Las Abuelas de Plaza de Mayo and the Search for Identity
Wednesday, September 25, 3 pm
Library, Johnson Room
Dr. C. A. Tuggle tells the story of an Argentinian human rights organization of grandmothers committed to finding their grandchildren, stolen by the government during the country’s “Dirty War.”

OCTOBER

Dr. John Guzlowski
Wednesday, October 2
University Hour, 3 pm
Library, Johnson Room
Dr. Guzlowski will share the experiences of his parents before, during, and after they were taken into Nazi Germany as slave laborers.

The Freedom Rides: Non-violence & Civil Rights
Wednesday, October 9
University Hour, 3 pm
Student Center, Theatre
Civil rights activist, Dr. Bernard Lafayette, will talk about the Civil Rights Movement and Freedom Rides of the 1960s.

Dancing at Lughnasa
Thursday, October 10, 7-30 pm
Shafer Hall, Harry Hope Theatre
Opening night of Brian Friel’s award-winning play that blends religion, comedy, and domestic turmoil into a powerful vision of Irish culture and history.

Student Brown Bag Recital
Friday, October 11, 12 pm
Shafer Hall, Auditorium
Bring your lunch and enjoy student performances of musical works by composers from Latin America and Spain.

Choral Music of Latin America
Saturday, October 12, 11 am
Student Center, Theatre
Dr. Diana Sáez will present an interdisciplinary lecture on the history of choral music in Latin America, followed by a reading session of repertoire appropriate for choirs of varying levels of ability.

Beyond Binaries: Identity and Sexuality
Monday, October 14, 3 pm
Student Center, Theatre
Explore the landscape of sexual orientation, identity, and attraction at this interactive program.

Stuck
Monday, November 4
University Hour, 3 pm
Student Center, Theatre
Take a look inside the international adoption process and become aware of the millions of children growing up in institutions in Ethiopia, Vietnam, Guatemala, Haiti, and Romania.

Social Issues & Steampunk
Wednesday, November 13
University Hour, 3 pm
Student Center, Theatre
A discussion with Dianah Pho on race, cultural appropriation, and gender as it relates to the Steampunk subculture. Students are encouraged to attend in Steampunk attire.

The Skin of Our Teeth
Tuesday, November 19, 7:30 pm
Shafer Hall, Harry Hope Theatre
Opening night of Thornton Wilder’s award-winning play on the indomitable American spirit after Pearl Harbor, updated to consider more recent historical contexts.

Hair Matters:
Wednesday, November 20
University Hour, 3 pm
Student Center, Theatre
Whether natural, straightened, or out of a bag, hair is a conflict. Come hear a panel of women discuss the political, social and other aspects surrounding women of color and their hair.

November

Stuck
Monday, November 4
University Hour, 3 pm
Student Center, Theatre
Take a look inside the international adoption process and become aware of the millions of children growing up in institutions in Ethiopia, Vietnam, Guatemala, Haiti, and Romania.

Social Issues & Steampunk
Wednesday, November 13
University Hour, 3 pm
Student Center, Theatre
A discussion with Dianah Pho on race, cultural appropriation, and gender as it relates to the Steampunk subculture. Students are encouraged to attend in Steampunk attire.

The Skin of Our Teeth
Tuesday, November 19, 7:30 pm
Shafer Hall, Harry Hope Theatre
Opening night of Thornton Wilder’s award-winning play on the indomitable American spirit after Pearl Harbor, updated to consider more recent historical contexts.

Hair Matters:
Wednesday, November 20
University Hour, 3 pm
Student Center, Theatre
Whether natural, straightened, or out of a bag, hair is a conflict. Come hear a panel of women discuss the political, social and other aspects surrounding women of color and their hair.

Engage. Enlighten. Empower. FALL 2013

It is the policy of Eastern Connecticut State University to ensure equal access to its events. If you are an individual with a disability and will need accommodations for the event, please contact the Office of AccessAbility Services at (860) 465-5573. In order to provide accommodations in a timely manner, please submit the request at least two weeks prior to the event.