

Register for a Spring Course (LACT2CP) that includes -
Spring 2016 Break in Jamaica!!

Saturdays, March 19 – 27, 2016, in Jamaica

Spring 2016 EDU 457 – Global Educational Field Experience in Jamaica,
3 credit Tier II Cultural Perspective course

Prerequisite: Permission of Instructor – Dr. David Stoloff

January 2013 Jamaican GEFE group with Principal Fabian Ford and driver Paul Clayton at Bethel School (photo taken by Bethel School student)

Hannah Malcolm and students at the end of a physical education lesson (photo taken by David Stoloff)

Highlights: Serve as a teaching aide at an infant school, primary, junior high, or high school in Hanover or St. James parishes in Jamaica, study ecotourism, interact with Jamaican teachers and students, and experience Jamaican culture.

Approximate Cost: $2,200

(includes airfare, ground transportation, housing, and most meals)

Initial deposit due by December 7th, 2015 - $500

Orientation meeting on Monday, December 7, 2015, 4 - 6:45

Please also register for EDU 457 for Spring 2016, Mondays, 7 – 9:45 pm

For more information or to get on the interest list, please contact:

Dr. David Stoloff, stoloff@easternct.edu, (860)465-5501