

SOCIAL JUSTICE WEEK

Monday, March 6 - Friday, March 10

The Arthur L. Johnson Unity Wing embraces all identities and uses intersectionality as a tool for cooperative effort that promotes social togetherness while creating an environment of social responsibility.

Social Justice Week brings awareness to social injustices impacting our campus and community.

Ethics and Leadership: Making choices for Social Justice

Monday, Mar. 6, 12 pm
Student Center, Room 223

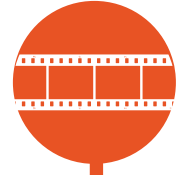

Come explore how leadership and choice-making are informed by both our ethical values and our privileged and oppressed social identities.

Title IX and Athletics

Monday, Mar. 6, 6 pm
Student Center, Theatre

An honest conversation on how Title IX has changed the face of athletics, and how you can continue to help make progress.

Poetry Knows Me | Poet Denice Frohman

Wednesday, Mar. 8, 3 pm
Student Center, Theatre
University Hour

Join an interactive conversation with Denice Frohman whose experiences and multi-cultural upbringing inspires her to explore the intersections of race, gender and sexuality.

IMPACT Personal Safety

Thursday, Mar. 9, 10 am
Student Center, BTR

3 hour full contact, adrenaline based self-defense program. Must sign up with the Women's Center.

Social Justice Week Reflection Lunch

Friday, Mar. 10, 12 pm
Library, Paul E. Johnson Room

Eat and reflect with fellow students, faculty and staff on social injustices and steps for achieving social justice.

Blackout Day

Monday, Mar. 6, All Day

Wear all black to support #EasternBlackout. Please join us for a discussion about #BlackLivesMatter and intersectionality in our community at 12 pm and 3 pm.

Color By Number

Monday, Mar. 6, 3 pm
Student Center, Theatre

Join an intentional discussion that will trace facts and stats on racism and leave you understanding your responsibility to be a social change agent.

REEL Talk

Tuesday, Mar. 7, 5 pm
Student Center, Room 219

She's Beautiful when She's Angry resurrects the buried history of the brilliant women who founded the modern women's movement from 1966 to 1971.

Unity Wing Poetry Slam

Wednesday, Mar. 8, 6 pm
Student Center, Café

A Poetry Slam focusing on Social Justice with guest poet Denice Frohman. There will be 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners decided by a panel of judges.

Students Fight Back: Your Response Matters

Thursday, Mar. 9, 7 pm
Student Center, BTR

Learn to trust your intuition in responding to different circumstances in your life.

