Calculator: You will need a calculator for some topics. A simple one will do, but it should be capable of computing powers.

Office hours: By appointment, right after class.

Prerequisites: MAT 101 or placement at this level.

Course topics: Selected material from chapters 1, 2, 12, 13, 21, and 22.

Class format: Each class meeting will include lecturing and related problem solving.

Attendance: It is expected that you be there on time for each and every class. Due to the intensity of the course, skipping classes is strongly discouraged. If for some reason you should miss (part of) a class, then it is your responsibility to find out from a friend what has been covered and assigned and make it up.

Homework: After each class you will get a homework assignment. It will not be collected and graded, but must be completed and should prepare you for the exams.

Exams: There will be two longer exams on Tuesday, December 20, and Thursday, December 22, and a shorter one on Friday, December 23, 2005.

Evaluation: The longer exams will account for 40% of your grade each and the shorter one for the remaining 20%.

Grades: The ranges for the grades are the following:

A-, A	90% and above
B-, B, B+	80% - 89%
C-, C, C+	70% - 79%

Students with disabilities: If you are a student with a disability and believe you will need accommodation for this class, it is your responsibility to contact the Office of AccessAbility Services at (860) 465-5573. To avoid any delay in the receipt of accommodations, you should contact the Office of AccessAbility Services as soon as possible. Please understand that I cannot provide accommodations based upon disability until I have received an accommodation letter from the Office of AccessAbility Services. Your cooperation is appreciated.
