Freshman Preference Registration (FPR) instructions

It is time to register for Fall 2020 classes at Eastern! Follow the instructions below to learn about the Freshman Preference Registration (FPR) system and how you will register for your Fall 2020 courses!

WHAT IS FPR?
Freshman Preference Registration (FPR) is a tool available to incoming first-year students who have paid their tuition deposits to allow our incoming freshmen to preregister for their Fall 2020 courses before SOAR (Orientation).

WHEN CAN I REGISTER?
Monday, May 18th at 4pm—Monday, June 1st at 4pm

WHERE WILL I REGISTER?
Eastern’s SelfService eWeb app in your Office 365 Account

WHY COMPLETE FPR?
You should complete FPR as soon as possible. Early completion of the process will increase your chances of receiving your preferred courses.

1. Login to your Office 365 Account
   Click the apps tab on the left and select SelfService (eWeb). If you have difficulty logging into your account, please contact the ITS Help Desk at (860) 465-4346.

2. Confirm your major!
   In order for FPR to work properly, your current major must be accurate.
   You can check your current major on the first page of the Freshman Preference Registration.
   If your major is incorrect, you can change your major through eWeb-> Admissions tab.

3. Begin FPR!

4. Complete FPR!
   The registration process includes four step-by-step sections. Please read and follow all instructions closely. You can complete the registration process once you have registered for 15-17 credits.
