STUDIO ART CONCENTRATION

Portfolio Guidelines And Submission Form

Department of Art & Art History, 860-465-0197, FAIC 317

Students interested in the Studio Art Concentration are required to submit a portfolio for admission to the program after completing designated foundation courses.

Portfolios must be carefully prepared according to guidelines available in the Art & Art History Department office (FAIC 317) and online. After portfolios are submitted and program admission approved, students can enroll in 300 level studio courses. Students whose portfolios do not meet standards will be required to take supplemental courses. No student will be allowed to proceed on to a 300-level (or higher) studio course without a successful portfolio review.

7 Samples of Artwork are Required:

- 4 Samples demonstrating basic proficiency in drawing and/or painting
- 3 Samples demonstrating basic proficiency in printmaking and/or 2-D design

Size

- Artwork must fit unfolded in a 12" x 18" portfolio.
- Original artwork can be mounted or unmounted, but must be well-presented and clean.

Submission Procedure

1. Pick up a portfolio envelope in the Art & Art History Department Office, Fine Arts Instructional Center, Room 317.
2. Fill in the Personal Information Form (See right).
3. Attach a copy of your online (unofficial) Web Transcript.
4. Use labels provided to label artwork on the back, lower right hand corner. Identify the course the piece was created.
5. Put your correctly prepared and labeled artwork, completed Personal Information Form and Web Transcript in the portfolio.
6. Return the completed portfolio to the Art & Art History Office, FAIC 317.

Deadlines for Portfolio Submission

Submission is ongoing. It is strongly recommended that students submit their portfolios at least two weeks before the registration period begins. Review can take two weeks or more.
