

MASTER OF SCIENCE ACCOUNTING

ONLINE IN REAL TIME

Increase Your Career Versatility

Completing your master's degree at Eastern fulfills the 150-credit requirement needed to obtain a CPA license.

The certified public accountant license makes you more marketable because it increases the types of accounting work you can do. CPAs can provide financial consultancy and sign audit opinions, represent clients at tax audits and perform other IRS and government related services.

Professional Relationships

Eastern is proud of our MS in Accounting student placement record. The accounting program enjoys strong relationships with the accounting profession, allowing Eastern to place graduates at Price Water House Cooper (PwC), KPMG, Blumshapiro, Cigna, United Technology, Pratt and Whitney, Travelers, Federal DCAA, Connecticut State Auditors of Public Accounts, and other State of Connecticut Agencies.
