ENG 390-01
ADVANCED WRITING SEMINAR: HUMAN RIGHTS RHETORIC

Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays: 2:00-2:50 pm

Dr. Christine Garcia

Who gets heard?
Who gets believed?
Who gets to decide what justice looks like?

In ENG 390 Human Rights Rhetoric, we will explore the language, stories, and movements that have shaped human rights in the United States, from the Civil Rights Movement to today's debates about immigration, free expression, and social justice. Through discussion, analysis, and a creative or research project of your choosing, we will investigate how people use rhetoric to inspire change.
