2022-2023 Financial Aid Offer Appeal

Student Name: _____ Eastern ID: _____

If you believe a second look at your financial aid offer is appropriate, Eastern Connecticut State University requests the following documentation for consideration:

- Completion of this document, including other University's costs.
• Copies of your financial aid offers from comparable institutions.

Please email your complete re-evaluation request with supporting documentation listed above in one email message to financialaid@easternct.edu. Your re-evaluation appeal will not be reviewed until it is complete with all supporting documentation. You will receive information regarding the outcome of your request via email.

Note: Comparable institutions are viewed as four-year, private or public, not-for-profit institutions. If you reside in another state and are eligible for in-state tuition at another public comparable institution, Eastern cannot consider your in-state residency for that school.

All costs listed below should be for the full academic year (2022-2023), not for one semester.

Table with 4 columns: Institution & Cost, Eastern Connecticut State University (Non-CT Residents), School Comparison 1, School Comparison 2. Rows include Tuition & Fees*, Housing*, Meal Plan*, Total Direct Cost*, University Scholarships/Grants, Federal Grants, State Grants, Total Scholarship/Grants, and Net Cost (Total Direct Cost - Total Scholarships & Grants).

*These rates are estimates based on the 2021-2022 Cost of Attendance. The 2022-2023 rates will be set by the Board of Regents this spring. Please note the Eastern Connecticut State University costs listed above are projected and subject to change based on course load, residence hall selection, meal plan selection, and program-related fees, as well as Board of Trustee Approval.
