All Musicians Are Entrepreneurs with Philip Antoniades
Once a musician accepts their role as an entrepreneur, the daunting task of succeeding in the music business becomes a world of discovery and choice. The music business is constantly evolving, creating new emerging markets, selling “new” music and marketing the next great thing. Every musician who believes in themselves, builds their skills from novice to expert, makes production decisions and challenges the world to listen is already honing their entrepreneurial skills. Refocusing those skills on business can lead to a fulfilling and successful career.

Freshman and Sophomore & Music Minor Advising
The Music Program will host advising sessions for Freshman and Sophomore Music Majors as well as Music Minors.

The New Piano with Lisa Moore
Lisa Moore’s playing has been singled out by The New York Times for its “life and freshness” and “fragility and tenderness.” Her performances combine music and theatre with expressive and emotional power – whether in the delivery of the simplest song, a solo recital, or a theatrical chamber score. She has recorded over fifty commercial CDs, and was the founding pianist for the Bang on a Can All Stars from 1992-2008. Lisa will present several startling modern works – including a solo by the American composer Frederic Rzewski, a theatrical work by Dutch composer Mayke Nas, and a piece with animation by the Australian creative duo Kate Neal and Sal Cooper.
