The campus speed limit is 15 mph.

Handicapped spaces

Section 14-253a of the Connecticut General Statutes prohibits the use of designated handicapped parking spaces unless the vehicle operator or passenger has a valid state handicapped permit displayed on a plate or placard. Handicapped permits are issued to the operator or passenger who has a valid state handicapped permit disability as defined in section 14-253a which is an infraction and will result in a $150 fine unless appealed, without payment, by the vehicle operator or passenger. If the decision of the Committee is denied, you will have 10 days from the date of your letter to pay the fine. Fines must be paid in full within 10 days of the date issued or the original total fine will double. The decision of the Committee is final.

Helpful Hints

1. The University Police Department is open 24 hours a day, seven days a week.
2. Blue emergency phones are installed throughout campus for your safety. These telephones are a direct line to the University Police Department.
3. If you are concerned about your safety while walking from one campus location to another, please call the University Police Department at (860) 465-5310 for an escort or for the Shuttle Bus Service.
4. Be at least 15-30 minutes early for class to assist in locating parking in your designated area. See section on “Where to Park.”
5. If your vehicle becomes disabled, leave a note on the dashboard including your name and your telephone number.
6. Please remember to park only in areas designated by your permit.

Notice!

Eastern Connecticut State University shall not be liable for any loss, theft or damage, whether accidental or intentional, including vandalism, which may occur to any motor vehicle or its contents while said motor vehicle is parked on University property, or being towed or otherwise removed from University property. Further, Eastern Connecticut State University shall not be liable or otherwise responsible, based upon the issuance of any parking permit, for any bodily injury, death or property damage sustained by the operation of a motor vehicle pursuant to University parking regulations.

Parking Regulations

Handicapped/Motorized Vehicles

The University reserves the right to tow vehicles at the owner’s expense if they are parked for over 48 hours in a disabled parking space, or if the vehicle is not properly parked as defined in the University’s parking regulations. Individuals with a physical disability who require an extended time period to complete their daily activities may be eligible for the University’s Handicapped Parking Permit. The Handicapped Parking Permit is only granted to individuals with a physical disability who demonstrate a need for the permit. The permit is obtained through the University’s Student Health Services.

Towing/Tow Warnings

The University Police Department provides a shuttle bus service for the University community. All of the shuttle buses are equipped with a lift for the physically impaired. To request ADA services please call the Police Department at (860) 465-5310 to make arrangements for assistance.

Street route schedules and stops subject to change. Check the shuttle location updates may be viewed at easternct.mdnoc.com

Driver’s Info

You must also notify the University Police Department in order to park in your designated area. See section on “Where to Park.”

CAR PARKING

Vehicle registration; and proof of enrollment

The Admissions Parking Lot, adjacent to the Admissions building, is restricted to staff and visitors to Admissions. Visitor’s permits are required.

We at Eastern Connecticut State University welcome you and are pleased to have you on our campus for the same school year. Violators will be ticketed.

The University retains the right to revoke parking permits for any violation of parking rules and regulations.

Notice!

Construction projects may alter parking locations at any time during the year. Notifications will be made accordingly.

Handicapped spaces

Section 14-253a of the Connecticut General Statutes prohibits the use of designated handicapped parking spaces unless the vehicle operator or passenger has a valid state handicapped permit displayed on a plate or placard. Handicapped permits are issued to the operator or passenger who has a valid state handicapped permit disability as defined in section 14-253a which is an infraction and will result in a $150 fine unless appealed, without payment, by the vehicle operator or passenger. If the decision of the Committee is denied, you will have 10 days from the date of your letter to pay the fine. Fines must be paid in full within 10 days of the date issued or the original total fine will double. The decision of the Committee is final.

Helpful Hints

1. The University Police Department is open 24 hours a day, seven days a week.
2. Blue emergency phones are installed throughout campus for your safety. These telephones are a direct line to the University Police Department.
3. If you are concerned about your safety while walking from one campus location to another, please call the University Police Department at (860) 465-5310 for an escort or for the Shuttle Bus Service.
4. Be at least 15-30 minutes early for class to assist in locating parking in your designated area. See section on “Where to Park.”
5. If your vehicle becomes disabled, leave a note on the dashboard including your name and your telephone number.
6. Please remember to park only in areas designated by your permit.

Notice!

Eastern Connecticut State University shall not be liable for any loss, theft or damage, whether accidental or intentional, including vandalism, which may occur to any motor vehicle or its contents while said motor vehicle is parked on University property, or being towed or otherwise removed from University property. Further, Eastern Connecticut State University shall not be liable or otherwise responsible, based upon the issuance of any parking permit, for any bodily injury, death or property damage sustained by the operation of a motor vehicle pursuant to University parking regulations.

Parking Regulations

Handicapped/Motorized Vehicles

The University reserves the right to tow vehicles at the owner’s expense if they are parked for over 48 hours in a disabled parking space, or if the vehicle is not properly parked as defined in the University’s parking regulations. Individuals with a physical disability who require an extended time period to complete their daily activities may be eligible for the University’s Handicapped Parking Permit. The Handicapped Parking Permit is only granted to individuals with a physical disability who demonstrate a need for the permit. The permit is obtained through the University’s Student Health Services.

Towing/Tow Warnings

The University Police Department provides a shuttle bus service for the University community. All of the shuttle buses are equipped with a lift for the physically impaired. To request ADA services please call the Police Department at (860) 465-5310 to make arrangements for assistance.

Street route schedules and stops subject to change. Check the shuttle location updates may be viewed at easternct.mdnoc.com

Driver’s Info

You must also notify the University Police Department in order to park in your designated area. See section on “Where to Park.”

CAR PARKING

Vehicle registration; and proof of enrollment

The Admissions Parking Lot, adjacent to the Admissions building, is restricted to staff and visitors to Admissions. Visitor’s permits are required.

We at Eastern Connecticut State University welcome you and are pleased to have you on our campus for the same school year. Violators will be ticketed.

The University retains the right to revoke parking permits for any violation of parking rules and regulations.

Notice!

Construction projects may alter parking locations at any time during the year. Notifications will be made accordingly.

Handicapped spaces

Section 14-253a of the Connecticut General Statutes prohibits the use of designated handicapped parking spaces unless the vehicle operator or passenger has a valid state handicapped permit displayed on a plate or placard. Handicapped permits are issued to the operator or passenger who has a valid state handicapped permit disability as defined in section 14-253a which is an infraction and will result in a $150 fine unless appealed, without payment, by the vehicle operator or passenger. If the decision of the Committee is denied, you will have 10 days from the date of your letter to pay the fine. Fines must be paid in full within 10 days of the date issued or the original total fine will double. The decision of the Committee is final.

Helpful Hints

1. The University Police Department is open 24 hours a day, seven days a week.
2. Blue emergency phones are installed throughout campus for your safety. These telephones are a direct line to the University Police Department.
3. If you are concerned about your safety while walking from one campus location to another, please call the University Police Department at (860) 465-5310 for an escort or for the Shuttle Bus Service.
4. Be at least 15-30 minutes early for class to assist in locating parking in your designated area. See section on “Where to Park.”
5. If your vehicle becomes disabled, leave a note on the dashboard including your name and your telephone number.
6. Please remember to park only in areas designated by your permit.

Notice!

Eastern Connecticut State University shall not be liable for any loss, theft or damage, whether accidental or intentional, including vandalism, which may occur to any motor vehicle or its contents while said motor vehicle is parked on University property, or being towed or otherwise removed from University property. Further, Eastern Connecticut State University shall not be liable or otherwise responsible, based upon the issuance of any parking permit, for any bodily injury, death or property damage sustained by the operation of a motor vehicle pursuant to University parking regulations.

Parking Regulations

Handicapped/Motorized Vehicles

The University reserves the right to tow vehicles at the owner’s expense if they are parked for over 48 hours in a disabled parking space, or if the vehicle is not properly parked as defined in the University’s parking regulations. Individuals with a physical disability who require an extended time period to complete their daily activities may be eligible for the University’s Handicapped Parking Permit. The Handicapped Parking Permit is only granted to individuals with a physical disability who demonstrate a need for the permit. The permit is obtained through the University’s Student Health Services.

Towing/Tow Warnings

The University Police Department provides a shuttle bus service for the University community. All of the shuttle buses are equipped with a lift for the physically impaired. To request ADA services please call the Police Department at (860) 465-5310 to make arrangements for assistance.

Street route schedules and stops subject to change. Check the shuttle location updates may be viewed at easternct.mdnoc.com

Driver’s Info

You must also notify the University Police Department in order to park in your designated area. See section on “Where to Park.”

CAR PARKING

Vehicle registration; and proof of enrollment

The Admissions Parking Lot, adjacent to the Admissions building, is restricted to staff and visitors to Admissions. Visitor’s permits are required.

We at Eastern Connecticut State University welcome you and are pleased to have you on our campus for the same school year. Violators will be ticketed.

The University retains the right to revoke parking permits for any violation of parking rules and regulations.

Notice!

Construction projects may alter parking locations at any time during the year. Notifications will be made accordingly.
If driving an alternate vehicle, you are required to obtain a temporary parking permit prior to parking on University property. All temporary parking permits may be obtained 24/7 from the University Police Department. You are required to present your valid vehicle registration and student I.D. to applicable. Temporary parking permits must be COMPLETELY DISPLAYED on the front windshield, hanging from the rearview mirror.

Visitors
Students, faculty and staff are responsible for informing their guests or visitors of the parking permit requirement as well as the rules and regulations on parking on University property. All guests and visitors will be assigned designated parking areas by the Police Department upon receipt of the temporary permit. Overnight parking regulations will be enforced.

Where to Park
- Faculty/staff, commuters and residential students must park in their designated areas at all times.
- All designated parking areas have signage or are outlined in these regulations.
- A parking space is clearly marked by two white lines.
- Students are expected to walk or take a shuttle to other areas on campus.
- There is no overnight parking allowed (2 to 5 a.m.) in commuter and faculty/staff parking lots.
- Violators will be ticketed and/or towed.
- No facultystaff or student is allowed to park in designated “Visitor” parking spaces at any time.
- There are designated areas for motorcycles and scooters.
- Weekend parking begins on Friday at 6:45 p.m. Residents may use commuter parking areas from noon until 2 a.m. Overnight parking regulations (after 2 a.m.) will still be enforced in all commuter lots, faculty/staff lots. Violators must follow parking regulations related to visitor parking.

Admissions Parking Lot
The Admissions Parking Lot, adjacent to the Admissions building, is restricted to staff and visitors to Admissions. Visitor’s permits are obtained from Admissions staff.

General Parking
- Mansfield Athletic Complex (anyone with a valid Eastern permit)
- Short Term Load/Unload Spaces (15 minute maximum)

On-Street Residential Parking
( Bristol, Lyme, Willimantic, Thompson, Plainfield, Chaplin, Chaplin West, 22nd St.)

NOTE: The Windham Regional Vocational Technical School parking lot is reserved for the exclusive use of students and employees of that facility. The University Police Department does not have jurisdiction in this area. Unauthorized vehicles will be towed at the owner’s expense.

Issuance of Tickets
Tickets will be issued to those vehicles found in violation of University parking regulations and/or Connecticut Motor Vehicle Statutes. Tickets will be issued every four hours for handicapped, visitor and faculty/staff lot violations. Every day at 8 a.m. constitutes a new violation.

Parking Violations
(includes but not limited to):
- Fire zone
- Traffic hazard
- Handicapped spaces
- Restricted area (any area not authorized by your permit)
- Sidewalk or lawn
- No permit
- Not within zones
- Winter storm violation
- Improper display of permits
- Displaying multiple permits
- Other

Parking on sidewalks, lawns, fire lanes, against curbs or any area not specifically designated as a parking area is not allowed.

The campus speed limit is 15 m.p.h.
The decision of the Committee is final.

After 10 days from the date of your letter, the fine will double.

If your appeal is denied, you will have 10 days from the date of your letter to pay the original fine. After 10 days from the date of your letter, the fine will double.

If you believe that you have received a ticket in error, you have the right to appeal to the University Parking Appeals Committee. The appeal forms are available at the University Police Department or on the Public Safety web page at www.easternct.edu/police.

OUTSTANDING TICKETS

Outstanding tickets will prevent you from registering for classes, obtaining transcripts or renewing your parking permit. All outstanding tickets must be appealed, without payment, within 10 business days after the violation is issued.

For your added safety and convenience, the University Police Department is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. If you are concerned about your safety while walking from one campus location to another, you must also notify the University Police Department in order to register your vehicle with the Eastern Connecticut State University. For a student permit application, go to: www.easternct.edu/police. Please read this booklet so that you are familiar with the parking regulations and regulations on campus. If you have any questions concerning these parking regulations, please contact the University Police Department at (860) 465-4444 or (800) 578-1449.

NOTICE!

Notice to students, faculty, staff, and visitors: Construction projects may alter parking locations at any time. People with disabilities are encouraged to contact the Parking Office at (860) 465-5310 for an escort or for the Shuttle to Park.

Parking Violations

- Parking on sidewalks, lawns, fire lanes, against curbs or any area not specifically designated as a parking area is not allowed.
- Faculty and staff parking permits are not valid in handicapped spaces; or for vehicles that are violating any loss, theft or damage, whether accidental or intentional, including vandalism, which may occur to any motor vehicle or its contents while parked and/or abandoned.
- Eastern Connecticut State University shall not be liable for any loss, theft or damage, whether accidental or intentional, including vandalism, which may occur to any motor vehicle or its contents while parked and/or abandoned.
- Tow warnings are not subject to appeal.
- Individuals with five or more violations are subject to having their vehicle towed as well as loss of parking privileges until all fines are paid. Tow warnings are not subject to appeal.
- Pursuant to Section 10a-92 of the Connecticut General Statutes, faculty/staff lot violations. Every day at 8 a.m. constitutes a new violation.
- Restrictions are for posted time limitations in these areas including towing. The City of Willimantic also enforces parking bans in inclement weather. Listen to WILI radio station at 1400 AM or 98.3 FM for information.

WINDHAM TECH PARKING LOT

NOTE: The Windham Regional Vocational Technical School parking lot is reserved for the exclusive use of students and employees of that facility. The University Police Department does not have jurisdiction in this area. Unauthorized vehicles will be towed at the owner’s expense.

ISSUANCE OF TICKETS

Tickets will be issued to those vehicles found in violation of University parking regulations and/or Connecticut Motor Vehicle Statutes. Pursuant to Section 10a-92 of the Connecticut General Statutes, revenues collected from the University parking fines are deposited to the Student Scholarship Fund.

Tickets will be issued every four hours for handicapped, visitor and faculty/staff lot violations. Every day at 8 a.m. constitutes a new violation.

PARKING VIOLATIONS

Includes but not limited to:
- Fire zone
- Traffic hazard
- Handicapped spaces
- Restricted area (any area not authorized by your permit)
- Sidewalk or lawn
- No permit
- Not within time
- Winter storm violation
- Improper display of permits
- Displaying multiple permits
- Other
THE UNIVERSITY RETAINS THE RIGHT TO revoke Parking Permits FOR ANY VIOLATION OF PARKING RULES AND REGULATIONS.