

Department of Psychological Science

Psi Chi International Honor Society

Psi Chi's mission is to encourage excellence in scholarship and to foster the advancement of psychological science.

Membership is open to graduate and undergraduate students who are making the study of psychology one of their major interests and who meet the minimum qualifications. Psi Chi is open to majors and minors in psychology.

The minimum qualifications at Eastern are:

1. Complete minimum of 12 credit hours in psychology courses at Eastern
2. Overall GPA of at least 3.0
3. Psychology GPA of at least 3.5
4. Successfully complete PSY 227 (Behavioral Science Statistics).

Psi Chi is a member of the Association of College Honor Societies (ACHS) and is an affiliate of the American Psychological Association (APA) and the American Psychological Society (APS). Psi Chi functions as a federation of chapters located at more than 800 senior colleges and universities in the United States. A National Council, composed of psychologists who are Psi Chi members and who are elected by the chapters, guides the affairs of the organization and sets policy with the approval of the chapters.

Please contact Dr. Scisco (sciscoj@easternct.edu) or Dr. Lee (leeph@easternct.edu) for more information.
